Academic Honesty Cases

ACADEMIC DEAN JURISDICTION

Instructor identifies potential violation(s) and makes a good faith effort to meet with the student within 5 days of discovery to present evidence in the case

Option 1 (Student Meets with Instructor) – The student has two days after the meeting to provide the instructor with additional information/evidence
OR
Option 2 (Student Does Not Meet with Instructor) – Despite good faith effort, the student does not meet with the instructor

Within 5 days, instructor determines the violation(s) did not occur

No additional action is taken

Within 5 days, instructor determines that the violation(s) occurred and completes/submits the Academic Honesty Violation Report Form (found on BGSU See It, Hear It, Report It, website)

The academic dean or designee notifies the student of the date/time/location of a hearing to determine if the violation(s) occurred

The academic dean or designee determines that the violation(s) did not occur and no additional action is taken

The academic dean determines that the violation(s) occurred and informs the student and instructor in writing of the sanction(s) and appeal rights within 5 days

The student and or instructor may appeal the academic dean or designee's decision to the Academic Honesty Committee (AHC) within 7 days, and the academic honesty coordinator notifies both parties if a hearing is granted

If a hearing is not granted, party/parties may appeal to the provost within 7 days

If a hearing is granted, it will occur within 15 days

The AHC upholds the decision of the academic dean or designee

The AHC overturns the decision of the academic dean or designee

The AHC suspends the sanction(s) in whole or part

Party/parties may appeal to the provost within 7 days

Note: Days = Class Days