Position: Instructor in Interior Design, School of Family and Consumer Sciences
Full-time, Non-tenure Track Renewable

Primary Responsibilities:
- Teach undergraduate Interior Design courses, including introductory studios, history of interiors, and other courses as needed.
- Service requirement, including active participation in a wide array of program activities and Program, School and College committees.
- Advise undergraduate students.

Required Qualifications:
- Master’s degree in Interior Design or related field, including the fine arts. Degree must be conferred by the position start date of August, 2019.

Preferred Qualifications:
- Teach in a wide area of content within Interior Design curriculum, introductory studio courses and history of interiors.

Salary: Competitive and commensurate with peer institution levels for rank and position and in keeping with candidate experience and credentials.

Effective Date of Employment: August, 2019

Postmarked Closing Date for Applications: May 3, 2019

Credentials Required for Application:
- Cover letter
- Curriculum vita
- Official transcript of highest degree
- Three current (dated within one year) letters of recommendation

Application Process:
For a complete job description & instructions on how to apply for this position visit https://bgsu.hiretouch.com/ or contact the Office of Human Resources, BGSU. In compliance with the ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA), if you have a disability and would like to request an accommodation in order to apply for a position with Bowling Green State University, please call 419-372-8421.

Further Information:
Dr. Deborah Wooldridge, Director
School of Family and Consumer Sciences
dgwoold@bgsu.edu

BGSU policy requires finalists to authorize and pass a background investigation prior to receiving an offer of employment.

Bowling Green State University is an AA/EEO/Vet employer. We encourage applications from women, minorities, veterans, and persons with disabilities regardless of age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, or genetic information.
GENERAL INFORMATION

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>THE PROGRAM</th>
<th>Interior Design is a four-year Bachelor's program (BSID) accredited by the National Association of Schools of Art and Design (NASAD). The Program aspires to be a student-centered learning community for developing individuals and shaping the future through learning, discovery, collaboration and personal growth.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>THE SCHOOL</td>
<td>The School of Family and Consumer Sciences is a multidisciplinary school that is dedicated to communicating, advancing, and applying knowledge that fosters the well-being of individuals and families. There are approximately 600 undergraduate majors and minors in undergraduate programs in apparel merchandising and product development, human development and family studies, and interior design with approximately twenty full-time faculty and staff support. The School maintains the Child Development Lab, an on-campus childcare facility accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children. The School also supports Tech Trek focusing on demonstrating the importance of girls' learning environment in STEM subjects.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>THE COLLEGE</td>
<td>The College of Education and Human Development is multipurpose with degrees in education and human development and is the administrative home to the School and Program. The College has an undergraduate enrollment of 3,600 students and offers advanced professional programs at the Master's, specialist, and doctoral levels. For more information about the college profile go to http://www.bgsu.edu/education-human-development/about-us.html</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>THE UNIVERSITY</td>
<td>The University is a public, state-assisted, residential university. It has approximately 21,000 students and a stable enrollment pattern. The main campus is located in Bowling Green, Ohio (pop.30,000) on I-75, 30 miles south of Toledo and is 15 miles south of the Ohio Turnpike. The University comprises eight colleges: College of Education and Human Development; The Graduate College; College of Arts &amp; Sciences; College of Business Administration; College of Health and Human Services; College of Musical Arts; College of Technology; and the Firelands College branch two-year campus located at Huron, Ohio.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ACCREDITATION AND RECOGNITION</td>
<td>North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges (Bachelor’s - Doctorate); National Council on Family Relations, Council on Rehabilitation Education; National Recreation and Park Association/American Association for Leisure and Recreation; National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, Department of Education, State of Ohio; American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education; National Association for the Education of Young Children; National Association of Schools of Art and Design and National Athletic Training Association.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>FACILITIES AND SERVICES</td>
<td>Facilities in Family and Consumer Sciences include: individual offices for faculty; technology and active learning classrooms; product development studio, textile lab, interior design, and a Child Development Lab. The nine-story Jerome library which includes open stacks, reading lounges, study carrels, and seminar rooms. Also included is an Information Technology Services Center with the latest and most complete computer system for students, faculty and administration, and an advisement office that supports cooperative arrangements for field-based activities with regional schools, agencies and industries.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>