Special Education/Literacy/Inclusive Education: Tenure-track, Assistant Professor position beginning August 2019. Responsibilities include working in a productive collegial atmosphere, teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in teacher education programs for students with mild/moderate and moderate/intensive disabilities. Doctoral degree or ABD completed by the start date of the position in special education. A minimum of three years of K-12 teaching experience. Demonstrated scholarly activities including research investigations publication, presentations for professional conferences, and grant writing. Teaching research in at least one of the following areas: special education and related, literacy, assessment, and inclusive education.

Credentials required for application: Cover letter, Curriculum vita, Official transcript of highest degree, and Three current (dated within one year) letters of recommendation.

Salary and benefits competitive and commensurate with peer institution levels for rank and position in keeping with candidates’ experience and credentials. Full benefits package available.

Applications must be received by November 2, 2018. For a complete job description and instructions on how to apply for this position visit https://bgsu.hiretouch.com/ or contact the Office of Human Resources, BGSU. Background check required for employment. BGSU is an AA/EEO/Vet employer. We encourage applications from women, minorities, veterans, and persons with disabilities regardless of age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, or genetic information.