OUTSTANDING AMPD STUDENTS – 2017

- 2017 Outstanding Senior: SHELBY WAAG
  Year of BGSU graduation: May 2017

This 2017 Outstanding Senior is a level-headed, smart and focused student, who has combined academic excellence with work experiences and internships.

- Full name: RACHEL HODNETT

Year of BGSU graduation: December 2017

Rachel stresses the importance of the AMPD program in preparing her for the future, by teaching her the tools I need to be successful in the retail industry.

- Full Name: PARKER GRAY CALVIN

Year of BGSU Graduation: December 2017

Parker Gray Calvin is waiting to exhale. He will graduate this December, but already has an impressive resume, having worked at the headquarters of Express in Columbus, and continuing with the company through his internship options.

- Full name: NICOLE RUTSCHILLING

Year of BGSU Graduation: May 2018

Nicole Rutschilling arrived at Bowling Green from a smaller Ohio town for her undergrad studies in 2014. “At first, I used to feel strange that I don’t know everybody! In my hometown, only 70 students had graduated from school, so I knew everyone. It was such a change here,” she recalls.

- Full name: AMANDA MUTCHLER

Year of BGSU graduation: 2017

At Ix Style, Amanda Mutchler’s main job was to draft and send product pitches to web and print magazines, potential vendors, and social media influencers.

- Full name: VICTORIA EDDY

Year of BGSU graduation: May 2018

At Dillard's where she worked, Victoria was a consistent top seller in the junior clothing department; exceeding sales per hour (sph) goals.