APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

1. The School of Intervention Services offers a limited number of graduate assistantships to full-time students (enrolled in eight graduate hours or more per semester for fall and spring) on a competitive basis. You must be planning on being enrolled full time over both fall and spring semesters in the academic year of the GA position. A graduate assistantship provides full-time students with tuition assistance and a stipend in exchange for 10 hours of work per week for 15 weeks. The appointments are typically made for the academic year, beginning with fall semester.
2. Qualifications: Required skills and dispositions for all positions include:
 - Excellent spoken and written communication skills
 - Willingness to learn and ask questions for clarity
 - Strong work ethic and willingness to be flexible
 - Ability to work independently when assigned specific tasks
 - Good time management and organizational skills
 - Computer skills or willingness to learn (e.g., Excel, Microsoft Word, Canvas LMS, Prezi, Google Sites)
 - Additional requirements for each position noted

Provide a brief explanation (no more than 250 words) of your qualifications. Please attach a resume.

3. References: List the names and contact information for three persons who have been requested to send letters of reference. References should be familiar with your academic and/or professional experience.
