

CAA review of the Retake policy and GC grade change policy:

“ Although there are some concerns about the retake/incomplete policies and graduate college proposed grade change policy about potential abuse of the policy by certain students, in general the committee is in favor of it in light of the benefits and loopholes the policies will close and recommend the SEC to move forward those proposals. “