STEP 2 – DEPENDENT STUDENT’S PARENT STATUS

- Parent 1 is the primary parent whose information was reported on the FAFSA
- Parent 2 is the spouse of Parent 1, whether they are a biological parent or a step-parent. A step-parent’s income must also be reported on the FAFSA, per federal regulations.
- NOTE: You cannot change your parents’ marital status after filing the FAFSA. If your parents’ marital status changed after you filed the FAFSA, you will need to complete a Special Consideration Application.

What is the current marital status of the parent(s) whose information was reported on the FAFSA?

Never Married	Divorced	Effective date of current marital status:
Married/Remarried	Separated
Widowed	Unmarried but both parents living together

STEP 3 – DEPENDENT STUDENT’S HOUSEHOLD INFORMATION

- Include your parents’ other children (even if they do not live with your parents) if (a) your parents will provide more than half of their financial support from July 1, 2020, through June 30, 2021, or (b) they would list either parent as their primary parent on their own FAFSA for 2020–2021.
- Include other people if they now live with your parents and your parents will provide more than half of their support during July 1, 2020 through June 30, 2021.
- Also include the college that any household member will be attending at least half time between July 1, 2020 and June 30, 2021. They must be enrolled in a college degree or certificate program, not post-secondary as a high school student.
