Parent Income & Living Expenses Assessment Form 2020-2021

The income reported for your parent(s) on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) does not appear sufficient to meet basic living expenses (i.e. housing, utilities, etc.). There may be additional resources (other than earnings from employment) that should have been included on your FAFSA to document how your parent(s) are meeting these living expenses. If so, some types of resources must be considered when determining your federal financial aid eligibility.

A. STUDENT INFORMATION

Form with fields for Last Name, First Name, M.I., BGSU ID Number, Address, Phone Number, City, State, Zip Code, and BGSU E-mail Address.

B. DETERMINING YOUR PARENT(S)' FAMILY HOUSEHOLD INCOME AND RESOURCES

The student's parent(s) should answer each of the following questions based on resources received in 2018:

- Did you receive free housing from a parent, friend, relative or someone with whom you have a relationship?
Did you receive food/groceries from a parent, friend, relative or someone with whom you have a relationship?
Did you receive free child care from a parent, friend, relative or someone with whom you have a relationship?

List all forms of income/resources for the 2018 calendar year. If little or no income/resources are listed, an explanation IS REQUIRED in the space provided on the next page of this form. Not all types of income are considered when determining financial aid eligibility. The intent is to establish how the student's family is being supported by the income reported on the FAFSA.

Table with 2 main columns: 2018 Parent Income/Resources and Monthly Amount From January 2018 through December 2018. Rows include various income sources like work, spouse, parents, etc., and a total row at the bottom.
