

Violent Crime Symposium Miami Valley Regional Crime Laboratory

Monday, October 18, 2021, 9am-4pm

Space is limited to 250 attendees – Register Now!

$150 members/$200 non-members

Lunch, parking and handouts included

Audience: Law Enforcement, Crime Scene Technicians, Detectives, Coroners, Medicolegal Death Investigators, and Attorneys

Featured Speakers:

Rockne P. Harmon - Senior Deputy District Attorney, Alameda County, CA, Retired
- Forensic/Cold Case Consultant and DNA Expert

Paul E. Kish - Forensic Consultant and Bloodstain Pattern Expert, Corning, NY

Topics include:

- OJ Simpson DNA Evidence: Fact versus fiction
- Familial DNA Searching and Genetic Genealogy: Which to do first
- Trial Presentation of DNA Evidence
- Introduction to Bloodstain Pattern Analysis
- Bloodstain Pattern Analysis: Fact or Fiction?
- The Application of Bloodstain Pattern Analysis to Violent Crimes

Training Location: Sinclair Community College, Conference Center
Fredrick C. Smith Auditorium
Building 12, Room 150
444 W. Third Street, Dayton OH 45402

Register via the google form here.

For questions, please contact:

Robert Hunkeler 937-496-7266 hunkelerr@mcoho.org

