(A)  Policy Statement and Purpose

The purpose is to articulate under what circumstances a student faces being placed on interim measures including interim suspension status for the health and safety of others and/or if they are charged with a trigger offense by university police as defined by state statute.

(B)  Policy

(1)  Interim Measures

When the Vice President for Student Affairs and Vice Provost or designee has reasonable cause to believe that a student(s) or student organization(s) may pose a risk to the safety or well-being of those involved or others in the university community, the student(s) or student organization(s) may be issued an interim measure.

(a)  Interim measures may be imposed only:

- To ensure the safety and well-being of members of the University community or preservation of University property;

(b)  If the student or organization poses a definite threat of disruption or interference with the normal operations of the University;
(c) If a student or organization is criminally charged with one or more of the following offenses of violence: aggravated murder, murder, voluntary manslaughter, involuntary manslaughter, felonious assault, aggravated assault, assault, permitting child abuse, aggravated menacing, menacing by stalking, menacing, kidnapping, abduction, extortion, rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, arson, terrorism, aggravated robbery, robbery, aggravated burglary, burglary, inciting to violence, aggravated riot, riot, inducing panic, domestic violence, intimidation, intimidation of crime victim or witness, escape, improperly discharging a firearm at or into a habitation or school, endangering children or felonious penetration.

(2) Interim Suspension

Interim actions may include but are not limited to: no contact order(s); restriction from specific classes, campus facilities or locations; requirement to secure a psychological evaluation; cease and desist mandates; restriction from facilitating or participating in student organization business or activities; suspension of student status or student organization recognition; etc.

An interim action shall remain in effect until removed or altered by the Vice President for Student Affairs and Vice Provost or designee or as the result of the student conduct process. Students or student organizations may challenge an interim action in writing to the Vice President for Student Affairs and Vice Provost or designee. Failure to comply with an interim action may result in a referral to the Office of the Dean of Students and/or the Bowling Green State University Police Department.

(3) Interim Suspension

The Vice President for Student Affairs and Vice Provost or designee may impose a University or Residence Hall Suspension on a student and Vice Provost or designee may suspend the registration of an organization prior to a conduct meeting or hearing.

(a) During an interim suspension, a student may be denied access to a living unit and/or to the campus, including classes, and/or all other University activities or privileges for which the student might otherwise be eligible. An organization shall discontinue all activities during an interim suspension.

(b) An interim suspension takes effect immediately upon issuance. A student or organization will receive written notice of the interim suspension, including a description of the suspected misconduct. A hearing will take place within ten (10) days or such other time as may be specified in the notice of interim suspension of the student’s or the organization’s receipt of written notice of the interim suspension. The student or organization may within three (3) days of the imposition of the suspension, petition the Dean of Students or designee for reinstatement. The petition must be in writing and must include supporting documentation or evidence that the student or organization does not pose, or no longer poses, a significant risk of substantial harm to the health or safety of self, others or property.
