Other News/Events From the Graduate College:
Diana of Dobson's introduces its audience to the overworked and underpaid female assistants at Dobson's Drapery Emporium, whose only alternative to their dead-end jobs is the unlikely prospect of marriage. This "romantic comedy," criticizes a social structure in which so-called self-made men profit from the cheap labor of others, and men with good educations, but insufficient inherited money, look for wealthy wives rather than for work. Show dates are November 16, 17, 18 at 8 p.m. and November 18, 19 at 2 p.m. in the Donnell theatre in the Wolfe Center for the Arts.
