Student's Degree Program _____

PILLARS is a grant program created by Linda Petrosino, Dean Emeritus of the College of Health and Human Services, designed to provide financial support to College of Health and Human Services students. The grants are funded by annual financial contributions from alumni and friends of the College of Health and Human Services. The fund was renamed the Linda Petrosino Pillars Fund in 2012 upon her retirement.

Your signature below indicates your support of the student's application for a PILLARS grant and your endorsement that the grant request will enhance or support the student's educational program. Please add a brief statement of support that might help the committee further understand the student's proposal. Use the space below and on the back or add a separate sheet, if you prefer.
