INSTRUCTOR/LECTURER, SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM
POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Bowling Green State University is seeking applicants for a non-tenure-track Instructor/Lecturer position in its Social Work Program beginning either January or August 2016. This is a one-year position with a possibility of renewal. The Program seeks an individual committed to undergraduate social work education in a fully accredited BSW Program.

Qualifications: A Master’s degree in Social Work or closely related field is required. Preference will be given to those holding a completed doctorate. The ideal candidate will have teaching experience and demonstrated success in the classroom.

Responsibilities: Teaching courses to social work, criminal justice and gerontology students; advisement; and university/community service. Teaching responsibilities will include some combination of interviewing/observation, research methods, chemical dependency, and/or gerontology.

The Program: The Social Work Program at BGSU is housed in the Department of Human Services, along with programs in Gerontology, Criminal Justice and Forensic Investigations. The College of Health and Human Services (CHHS) offers additional programs in speech language therapy, dietetics, public and allied health, applied health sciences and medical lab sciences. The College is looking forward to the completion of a $9.2 million building renovation in 2016 which will provide new labs, classrooms and gathering places for students to work and network with others. The CHHS enjoys over 1900 undergraduate students and approximately 230 graduate students.

The Social Work program offers courses in both Bowling Green and on the Firelands campus in Huron, Ohio. The curriculum incorporates a commitment to social justice and diversity. The Department places a high value on cross-disciplinary teaching and scholarship and the Social Work Program emphasizes collaborative research with its community partners. Bowling Green State University is a residential, comprehensive state supported university with roughly 19,000 undergraduate and graduate students, with 2500 students on its Firelands campus.

Compensation: Salary and benefits are competitive.

Start Date: January or August 2016

Application Information: Application deadline: October 1, 2015. To apply electronically, please send letter of interest, vitae, and three current letters of reference (on letterhead) to carrb@bgusu.edu, or send hard copies to:
