

GRADUATE STUDENT OPEN HOUSE

Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders

Saturday, October 12, 2019 10:00am – 12:00noon
Health & Human Services Building, Room 100

10 a.m. – Q & A with the Graduate Coordinator and Clinic Director

- Meet faculty members
- Visit with current students
- Tour the clinical and research facilities

Please consider attending this open house if you are interested in applying to Bowling Green State University's Master of Science Program with a concentration in Speech-Language Pathology, the M.S.-Ph.D. Bridge Program, or the Ph.D. Program. Please RSVP by October 8th to melcame@bgsu.edu or 419-372-2515.

Campus directions and map: www.bgsu.edu/map

BGSU Master's in Communication Sciences and Disorders

- Four academic semesters of on-campus study (classes and practicum) with the fifth semester devoted to a full-time, off-campus externship
- Classroom and clinical education across the scope of practice
- Accredited by the Council on Academic Accreditation in Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association
- 100% Praxis Exam Pass Rate
- Optional opportunity to meet Ohio requirements for school licensure
- RA/TA assistantships available based on merit. Typically includes tuition scholarship and stipend for the first two semesters.

www.bgsu.edu/cdisgrad

BGSU DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATION SCIENCES
AND DISORDERS

BOWLING GREEN STATE UNIVERSITY

17HH1847

B O W L I N G G R E E N S T A T E U N I V E R S I T Y