Position Description: Bowling Green State University (BGSU) is seeking applicants for a 9 month, qualified rank faculty position in Criminal Justice starting January 2020. The Criminal Justice program is one of the fastest growing programs on campus and currently serves over 500 students. The program offers a BS in Criminal Justice, including a specialization in forensic investigation as well as an MS in Criminal Justice. Criminal Justice is in the Department of Human Services in the College of Health and Human Services. This is position is reviewed annually for renewal.

Primary Responsibilities: Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in forensic investigation and providing academic and career advising to students. Courses may include online and face to face. Courses to be taught include Introduction to Forensic Science, Legal issues in Forensic Science, and Death Investigation. The teaching load associated with this position is four courses per semester. Candidates will be expected to participate in curriculum assessment, recruitment and retention activities as well as department, university and community service.

Qualifications: a Master’s degree in Criminal Justice/Forensic Science or related field or a JD with forensic investigative experience is required. The ideal candidate will have previous teaching experience. Preference will be given to candidates with a minimum of five years of law enforcement investigative or closely related experience including crime scene processing techniques, evidence collection and preservation, fingerprint classification, interviewing and interrogation, pre-trial procedures, and related subject matter areas.

Position Availability: August 2020

Applicants should submit a letter of interest, a curriculum vitae, and contact information for three references who will be asked to provide a current letter of recommendation. Finalists are also required to furnish official transcripts and are subject to a background check. Application deadline: December 1, 2019.

Bowling Green State University is a residential, comprehensive state supported university with roughly 19,000 undergraduate and graduate students. The city of Bowling Green has a population of just over 30,000 and is located in Northwest Ohio within close proximity of Toledo, Columbus and Cincinnati, Ohio.

For a complete job description & instructions on how to apply for this position visit: https://bgsu.hiretouch.com/ or contact the Office of Human Resources, BGSU. In compliance with the ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA), if you have a disability and would like to request an accommodation in order to apply for a position with Bowling Green State University, please call 419-372-8421.

Interested individuals can contact Andrew Kozal at Akozal@bgsu.edu or (419) 372-2905.

Bowling Green State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Educator and Employer. We are committed to fostering a diverse and inclusive environment and strongly encourage applications from women, minorities, veterans, and individuals with disabilities regardless of age, gender identity, genetic information, religion, or sexual orientation.