

Assistant Professor
Bowling Green State University
Criminal Justice

Position Description: Bowling Green State University (BGSU) is seeking applicants for a 9-month, tenure track position in Criminal Justice at the Assistant Professor level starting August 2020. The Criminal Justice program is one of the fastest growing programs on campus and currently serves over 500 students. The program offers a BS in Criminal Justice, including a specialization in forensic investigation, an MS in Criminal Justice with both a face-to-face and an on-line cohort. Criminal Justice is in the Department of Human Services in the College of Health and Human Services.

Primary Responsibilities: Responsibilities include teaching at the graduate and undergraduate levels in the criminal justice programs; establishing a record of high quality research and publication; advising students; supervising graduate students; participating in curriculum design; and providing professional service through community engagement and professional societies. Responsibilities also include participation in collaborative and cross-disciplinary teaching, research and service.

Qualifications: Candidates are required to hold a PhD in Criminal Justice/Criminology or closely related field. Advanced ABD candidates will be considered but must complete the degree by the position start date. A Juris Doctorate degree alone does not serve as a qualification for this position. All areas of specialization will be considered; however, preference will be given to candidates with a strong record of scholarship and teaching in corrections, courts, race, or victimology.

Salary: Competitive and commensurate with peer institution levels for rank and position and in keeping with candidate's experience and credentials.

Position Availability: August 2020

Applicants should submit a letter of interest, a curriculum vitae, a description of their research plan, a statement of teaching experience/philosophy, and contact information for three references who will be asked to provide a current letter of recommendation.

Finalists are also required to furnish official transcripts and are subject to a background check. Application deadline: December 09, 2019.
