

Assistant Clinical Professor
Bowling Green State University
Clinical Education Director: Doctor of Physical Therapy Program

Position Description: The College of Health and Human Services at Bowling Green State University (BGSU), Bowling Green, Ohio is seeking applicants for a full-time, 12-month non-tenured faculty appointment at the Assistant Clinical Professor level to serve as the Clinical Education Director of the developing hybrid Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) program. This accelerated two-year DPT program is a blend of online and on-campus activities, which allows the faculty member to live remote to the BGSU campus. However, DPT faculty members must be able to travel and stay in Detroit metro/south east Michigan/northwest Ohio for designated time periods each semester.

Primary responsibilities:

- Develop, monitor, and refine the clinical education component of the DPT curriculum.
- Facilitate high quality learning experiences for students during clinical education.
- Evaluate students' performance in cooperation with other faculty to determine their ability to integrate didactic and clinical learning experiences and to progress within the curriculum.
- Select clinical learning environments that demonstrate characteristics of sound patient/client management, ethical and professional behavior, and currency with physical therapy practice.
- Teach courses within the DPT curriculum.

Required Qualifications:

- Terminal academic doctorate (Ph.D., Ed.D, etc.) or a Doctor of Physical Therapy degree (or tDPT), with American Board of Physical Therapy Specialties (ABPTS) or certification credentials appropriate for their teaching responsibilities.
- Licensed or eligible for licensure in Ohio or the state of residence.
- Minimum of three years in clinical practice especially as applicable to clinical education.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Understanding of higher education and contemporary clinical practice appropriate for leadership in physical therapy clinical education.
- Knowledge of legislative, regulatory, legal, and practice issues affecting didactic and clinical education, students, and the profession of physical therapy.
- Active in professional activities at local, state, and/or national levels.

Salary: Competitive and commensurate with peer institution levels for rank and position and in keeping with candidate's experience and credentials.

Position Availability: June 2020

Applicants should submit a letter of application and full curriculum vitae summarizing their suitability for the job, a description of their research plan, a statement of teaching philosophy, contact information, and contact information for three professional references. Finalists are also required to furnish official transcripts and are subject to a background check. BGSU policy requires finalists to authorize and pass a background investigation prior to receiving an offer of employment. Application deadline: April 9, 2020.
