Position Description: Bowling Green State University (BGSU) is seeking applicants for a 9-month non-tenure track position as a Faculty Field Liaison in Social Work at the Assistant Clinical Professor level starting August 2020. Our BSW program is accredited and our Master of Social Work (MSW) is in its third year of candidacy with CSWE. Social Work is in the Department of Human Services in the College of Health and Human Services. The curriculum incorporates a commitment to social justice and diversity. This position is reviewed annually for renewal.

Primary Responsibilities: Responsibilities include teaching courses in the field curriculum for both the undergraduate and graduate social work programs; assisting the Field Coordinator with administration of field practicum processes such as: assessing student readiness for entering field practicum, monitoring student progress; training field instructors, and planning field program events. Other responsibilities include teaching other social work courses as assigned, advising students, and providing professional and community service.

Qualifications: A Master’s degree in Social Work from an accredited program is required. At least 2 years post-MSW practice experience is required. The preferred candidate will have previous classroom experience.

Position Availability: August 2020

Applicants should submit a letter of interest, a curriculum vitae, and contact information for three references who will be asked to provide a current letter of recommendation. Finalists are also required to furnish official transcripts and are subject to a background check. Application deadline: December 1, 2019.
