

BOWLING GREEN STATE UNIVERSITY
MSW PROGRAM
COURSE CHECKSHEET

First Year Courses – Generalist Practice

SOWK 5000 – Research Methods for Generalist Practice
SOWK 5005 – Professionalism, Ethics and Interpersonal Skills for Generalist Practice (3 credit hours)
SOWK 5060 – Generalist Practice with Smaller Systems (3 credit hours)
SOWK 5100 – Diversity, Oppression, and Social Justice (3 credit hours)
SOWK 5160 – Generalist Practice with Larger Systems (3 credit hours)
SOWK 5205 – Human Behavior in the Social Environment (3 credit hours)
SOWK 5220 – Social Welfare Policy and Practice (3 credit hours)

Foundation Courses

SOWK 5120 – Aging and Diversity (2 credit hours)
SOWK 5230 – Generalist Field Education (3 credit hours)
SOWK 5500 - Assessment in Social Work Practice (2 credit hours)
GERO 6010 – Current Perspectives in Gerontology (3 credit hours)

Second Year Courses – Specialized Practice

SOWK 6000 - Family Therapy (2 credit hours)
SOWK 6050 – Advanced Gerontological Practice with Smaller Systems (3 credit hours)
SOWK 6120 – Gerontological Social Work Practice in Mental Health and Substance Abuse (3 credit hours)
SOWK 6150 – Advanced Macro Practice (3 credit hours)
GERO 6100 – Aging Policy and Programs (3 credit hours)
GERO 6020 – Health and Aging (3 credit hours)
GERO 6530 – Research Methods in Gerontology (3 credit hours)
SOWK 6320 – Specialization Field Education 1 (4 credit hours)
SOWK 6330 – Specialization Field Education 2 (4 credit hours)

Students are expected to complete a 920 hour internship in a social service agency. Details for this are provided as the student matriculates in the Program.

The Program provides a mixture of online and face-to-face classes that meet primarily in the evening to accommodate working professionals.