

BGSU Opioid Teach-In Program
#changethestory on September 25, 2018
www.bgsu.edu/changethestory

All events held in the Bowen-Thompson Student Union 1001 E Wooster St. Bowling Green, Ohio

BTSU Ballroom 202A Events
Time	Title	Description	Presenters/Speakers
9:15 -10:00	Welcome	Welcome to the BGSU Teach-In and Opening Remarks	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Michael Ogawa, BGSU - Kelsey Krull, Northwest Ohio District Director
10:00-11:15	MAM, Is Your Boy Blue? The Neurology of Addiction	How the body and brain metabolizes heroin and other opioids. Provides education on how drugs affect the brain and lead to lasting changes.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Jon Sprague, BGSU
11:30-12:45	When It Touches Home: Family Experiences and Addiction	Family members will participate in a panel to discuss their experiences with a loved one's addiction, relapses, loss, and recovery.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Tonda DaRe - Dawn Taylor - Beth Robertson - Belinda Brooks
1:00-2:15	Pathways and Setbacks: Recovery and Addiction	Individuals who experienced addiction will participate in a panel to discuss their story and experiences with addiction and recovery.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Juan - Nate - Nick - Jeanne - Nicole - Tito
2:30-3:45	Our Lines are Open: Treatment for Addiction	Providers of substance abuse treatment within the community will discuss the continuum of care available to those experiencing substance dependence. Different treatment options will be discussed in detail as well as financial resources available for assistance.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Aimee Coe, Wood County ADAMHS Board - Stephanie McGuire-Wise, Zepf Center - Jeff Howell, A Renewed Mind
4:00-5:15	Decreasing the Probability: Prevention Matters	Experts will discuss prevention methods to reduce substance use.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Milan Karna, Educational Service Center - Kyle Clark, Educational Service Center
6:00-7:00	Addictions 101	Addiction 101 covers everything from how addiction affects the brain, to what brought about this epidemic, and ways to help end it.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Tonda DaRe, Holly's Song of Hope
7:15-8:30	Warning Signs & Reaching Out: Starting the Conversation	Participants will gain practical skills in how to address someone they believe may be experiencing addiction.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Laura Fullenkamp, BGSU - Chris Streidl, WC ADAMHS Board

BTSU Room 201A&B Events
Time	Title	Description	Presenters/Speakers
10:00-11:15	From Dispensing to Disposing of Medications	The presenter will review strategies to safely dispose of unused medications and resources available within the community.	- Kim Newlove, Hospital Pharmacist at Advanced Pharmaceutical Consultants, Inc.
11:30-12:45	Across the Lifespan: Intergenerational Addiction	Discussing the opiate issue from multiple perspectives to increase knowledge of how addiction affects each generation involved from children, to grandparents.	- Nancy Orel, BGSU Optimal Aging Institute
1:00-2:15	Policy and the Opioid Crisis	In depth look at current policies surrounding the opioid crisis	- Justin Rex, BGSU
2:30-3:45	The Other Side of the Coin: Healthy Approaches to Pain Control and Management	Presenters will be discussing their journey through chronic pain conditions. This will include a review of alternatives to the use of opiates to manage chronic pain conditions.	- John Zibbel, BGSU - Elizabeth Roberts-Zibbel, National Advocate for Chronic Pain
4:00-5:15	The Big Three: Substance Abuse, Mental Health, and Trauma	Explores the high prevalence of co-occurring issues with substance use. Presenting on the development of substance use disorders in individuals who have also experienced trauma or mental health concerns.	- Angela Patchin, Educational Service Center
6:00-7:00	Naloxone Training	Gain an understanding of how to use Naloxone when responding to a potential overdose. Naloxone kits will not be available to everyone that attends the event. A limited number of kits are available and will be prioritized based upon need.	- Stephanie McGuire Wise, Zepf Center
7:15-8:30	Change the Story: An Original Film	Change the Story is a realistic and powerful film about the impact of opioid addiction and overdose on family, friends, and the community. The film is designed as an educational platform for viewers to explore how the main characters may individually or collectively "change the story" through action and understanding.	- Ken Newbury, BGSU

BTSU Theater, Room 206 Events
Time	Title	Description	Presenters/Speakers
10:00-11:15	Chasing Hope: Video & Discussion	Viewing of the video "Chasing Hope" which provides an understanding of the opiate issue through the lens of local individuals and their struggle with addiction. A discussion will follow.	- Dawn Taylor, Parent Project Facilitator at Spring Green Educational Foundation
11:30-12:45	Change the Story: An Original Film	Change the Story is a realistic and powerful film about the impact of opioid addiction and overdose on family, friends, and the community.	- Ken Newbury, BGSU

BTSU Theater, Room 206 Events continued...
1:00-2:15	Naloxone Training	Gain an understanding of how to use Naloxone when responding to a potential overdose. Naloxone kits will not be available to everyone that attends the event. A limited number of kits are available and will be prioritized based upon need.	- Stephanie-McGuire Wise, Zepf Center
2:30-3:45	Change the Story; An Original Film	Change the Story is a realistic and powerful film about the impact of opioid addiction and overdose on family, friends, and the community.	- Ken Newbury, BGSU

BTSU Room 207 Events
Time	Title	Description	Presenters/Speakers
10:00-8:00	Wall of Impact	Sign a banner to share the how opioids have an impact on you, family, friends, community, society	- Self-guided
10:00-8:00	BGSU Angels	Share a note of support to those affected by opioids	- Self-Guided

BTSU Room 202B Events
Time	Title	Description	Presenters/Speakers
10:00-3:00	Change the Story: Interactive Experience	Read scenarios and write how you would change the story	- Self-guided
11:00-3:00	Resource Fair	Learn about and access agencies and resources available in our community	- Self-guided
6:00-8:30	Justice Responses and Policy Arena	A review of strategies from the justice system to address substance abuse within the community. This includes various programs in Northwest Ohio and the evolving ideology in providing assistance to those in addiction. Additionally, a discussion will be held regarding various policies that affect the legal system.	- Judge Bruce Winters, Ottawa County Common Pleas Court - DART Director Trevor Johnson, Ottawa County - Deputy Ryan Richards, Wood County Sheriff's Office - Sheriff Tharp, Lucas County Sheriff - Stephanie McGuire-Wise, Zepf Center