ARTS ON ICE

— 2017 - 2018 —

2017 HOLIDAY EXHIBITION – THE NUTCRACKER | Sunday, December 10, 2017 | 2:00 P.M.

Once again skaters of all ages and skill levels have an opportunity to take part in the Annual Holiday Exhibition. The 2017 season brings an old tradition to the Ice Arena for the first time - The Nutcracker! If your skater is interested in being involved in this year's production see one of the many class options offered for participation in one or more numbers for the exhibition.

PARTICIPATION

HOLIDAY EXHIBITION LESSONS

Additional classes offered during the Fall II session only to specifically prepare for the Holiday Exhibition. $25.00 per class, per skater.

The additional classes on Sunday provide an opportunity for new and beginning skaters to experience skating outside of typical lessons.

Returning skaters at higher skill levels have the opportunity during the Thursday class to join the production through additional classes.

IMPORTANT DATES & DETAILS

ADDITIONAL DATES

Full Cast Rehearsals: Please note the significance for all skaters to be present for both of the full cast rehearsals. It is important for the skaters to have the opportunity to put the various groups together and run the exhibition through thoroughly for them to be comfortable and confident for the day of the exhibition.

- Saturday, December 2 | 12:00 P.M. – 2:50 P.M.
- Saturday, December 9 | 12:00 P.M. – 2:50 P.M. (Dress Rehearsal)

Exhibition: Sunday, December 10 | 2:00 P.M.

- Skaters will be asked to arrive early the day of the exhibition. A detailed timeline for the day of the exhibition will be communicated closer to the event.

Details:

- All participants must be members of either; Learn to Skate USA or the Bowling Green Skate Club
- Participants will be asked to provide base layers for costuming such as a specific color leotard, shirt, or pants, and tights for example. Additional accessories will be provided to complete the full costume.
- Attendance at each practice including both full cast rehearsals is mandatory in order for the skater(s) to prepare. If a practice must be missed, a coach must be notified.
