SUMMER MUSIC INSTITUTE 2016

where music takes flight

Brass Camp

June 19 - 24, 2016
Are you a high school brass student interested in a challenging atmosphere where you can improve on your skills? Join us this summer for the SMI Brass Camp!

Students will receive individual guidance from members of the brass faculty at BGSU. A typical day includes brass ensembles, private lessons, seminars, guest artists, and student or faculty performances. Each student will have the opportunity to perform on the final concert.

Preparation: Students should be entering grades 9-12 and should prepare an etude and/or solo for placement in ensembles on the first day of camp.

Honors Recital: Student are encouraged to audition to perform a solo piece of their choosing for this special recital. Students selected for this honor must apply ahead of time by submitting a tape or CD recording of the piece they wish to perform with accompaniment by June 1, 2016 to Dr. William Mathis, College of Musical Arts, Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, OH 43403. An accompanist will be provided for the recital.

Scholarships: Scholarships are available to help defray the cost of the camp. The Dorothy M. Price Scholarship requires an application form. Please check the “Scholarships” tab at bgsu.edu/smi.
