WELCOME TO BGSU!

We’re excited to have you join us for Student Orientation, Advising and Registration (SOAR). Participation in SOAR is required, as it is a vital part of the start to your successful college journey. Throughout the program you’ll learn more about the BGSU community, academic and co-curricular expectations, and opportunities to shape your experience. You will also meet with an academic advisor to schedule courses to put your academic plan into action.

SOAR is an all-day program. There is a lot of information to cover about your transition and many action items you must complete before leaving campus. Expect to be on campus from 7:15 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on your scheduled date. Please keep this in mind, especially if traveling from far away to attend SOAR.

BGSU ADVISING OVERVIEW

At BGSU, students are assigned an academic advisor from day one. We strive to provide every opportunity possible for students to develop an on-going partnership designed to lead toward the important outcome of student success. This partnership begins at SOAR and continues to develop throughout students’ time at BGSU.

What’s the Purpose of Advising?
BGSU Advisors strive to challenge and support students to become independent and engaged citizens who are able to take responsibility for achieving lifelong educational, personal, and career goals. Across all of our programs and colleges, academic advising provides students the opportunity to build a relationship with their advisors in order to:

- establish educational and career goals
- develop academic degree plans to progress towards graduation
- explore experiential learning opportunities such as study abroad, service learning, internships, undergraduate research and many other co-curricular opportunities

Things to Know as You Prepare for Advising
Academic advising is a critical component of the course selection and registration process. During the SOAR advising session, students will meet with an academic advisor and map out appropriate courses for degree completion. To help determine which courses are best suited for a student’s first semester at BGSU, the advisor will take into consideration information about: students’ interests, educational and career goals; requirements of the students’ intended major plan; previous college credit; placement exams for the University Writing Program (UWP) and Math Placement; and BG Perspective requirements.

While the advising session is a time for students to explore their interests and navigate their pathways to success, please note that some advising sessions may feel more prescriptive than others. Some programs require very specific course sequences, resulting in fewer “free choices” for students.

In order to make the most of their time with their advisor, students should prepare for advising before they attend SOAR. Preparation includes:

- Send or Bring Information on Completed and In-Progress College-Level Coursework
  If you have completed college-level coursework, please send official transcripts or scores to the Office of Admissions. This includes College Credit Plus courses and Advanced Placement (AP) Credit. This information will be helpful for advisors to know to prepare for your advising session and will help to build the first semester schedule.
  To ensure information is accurate, please send transcripts and test scores as soon as they are available. If courses are still in progress, you can also bring a copy of your unofficial transcript to SOAR to discuss with your advisor.

- Completing the Writing Placement for Placement into the University Writing Program (UWP)
  Based on your Writing Placement score or accepted credit from another institution, you will either take WRIT 1110 (3 credit hours), WRIT 1120 (3 credit hours), or WRIT 1110 with a co-requirement of WRIT 1010 (5 total credit hours). If you completed the Writing Placement before you scheduled SOAR session, you will receive the placement score at your advising session.
  If you have not completed your Writing Placement, you must do so as soon as possible. Your scores need to be processed and sent to your advisor before your scheduled SOAR visit. If you do not do so, you may leave SOAR with an incomplete class schedule.
  To complete the placement:
    - Log onto the MyBGSU web portal
    - Click on the “New Student” icon
    - Click on the “Placement Test” link found on the left-hand side
    - Follow the prompts
  If you completed a college writing/composition class at another institution, via College Credit Plus, or Advanced Placement, a Writing Placement may not be necessary. However, students MUST send an official transcript or scores to the Office of Admissions from the college at which the credit was earned.

- Math Placement
  If your Math ACT is greater than or equal to 22, you will automatically be placed into math courses based on your ACT/SAT scores and high school GPA. If your Math ACT score is less than 22, you will be placed into Math 99 or Math 1150 depending on your declared major. In either case, advisors will use this information to recommend appropriate math courses. More information will be given at SOAR.

- Exploring the BG Perspective Courses
  All students at BGSU must meet the requirements of BGSU’s general education program—BG Perspective: 21st Century Liberal Studies. During the completion of general education requirements, students will hone their intellectual skills that include the ability to think critically and communicate effectively; the ability to understand different cultures, modes of thought, and multiple values; and the ability to investigate forces that shape scientific and technological complexities of contemporary culture. Typically, the first semester is a combination of BG Perspective courses, one or two introductory courses for the major, plus English composition (UWP) and/or math. During SOAR, you will be given information about these requirements, but you are encouraged to review the material prior to your visit.
  You can find more information, as well as a list of courses offered, at www.bgsu.edu/bg-perspective. We strongly encourage you to find several courses you find interesting and would enjoy taking during your time at BGSU. Though we cannot guarantee you will be placed in each class you want, advisors will take your interests into consideration when creating a schedule that complements the needs of your major.
Parents and Guests

Academic advisors have one goal – to help students achieve their academic, career and personal aspirations. Encourage your students to make the most of their BGSU experience by getting to know their academic advisor. While discussing courses and academic expectations with your student is crucial, the advising session at SOAR is for students only. BGSU has several reasons for this policy:

- By taking advantage of this opportunity to meet one-on-one with an advisor, the student has an opportunity to develop in alignment with the University’s mission. The mission states that “BGSU students are prepared for lifelong career growth, lives of engaged citizenship and leadership in a global society,” and two core values of the University note, “We promote intellectual and personal growth through curricular and co-curricular efforts,” and, “We foster an environment of creativity, innovation, and entrepreneurship.” Students can begin their personal journey of development, growth, leadership, and entrepreneurship in the advising meeting by advocating for their plans and interests while building trust and learning from the experience and expertise of their advisor.
- Students are empowered to make choices in their educational career at BGSU. By beginning this developmental process during SOAR, students are prepared to make their own decisions from the start of their BGSU journey.

- BGSU complies with all FERPA regulations. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of a student’s education record. FERPA applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. We encourage you to check out bgsu.edu/student-affairs/ferpa for more information.

Though the advising appointment at SOAR is for students only, BGSU strives to be as transparent about the advising process as possible, and does not wish to prevent parents and guests from understanding why decisions on a student’s schedule were made. We suggest discussing a plan of action with your student to help them prepare for the advising meeting. Please be aware that class availability, recommended coursework for different majors, and information about students’ placements and previous coursework may limit course selection options.

Below is a list of questions we encourage students and parents/guests to talk through to help ensure the student is prepared for the advising appointment:

- What questions do you have for your advisor?
- Why are you choosing your selected major?
- What BG Perspective courses sound interesting to you?
- What courses did you enjoy in high school?
- How many credit hours are you comfortable taking?
- What outside concerns may affect your course schedule?
  (e.g. commuting to campus, holding a job, volunteering commitments)
- What will you do if you are taking a class and it’s not going well?
- How do you plan to discuss your academic progress with your parents/family throughout the semester?
- What will your communication with your advisor look like during the semester?
- How do you plan to discuss the advising session at SOAR with your parents/family?
  (e.g. taking notes, talking after the advising session, etc.)
