

PROJECT WILD “SCIENCE AND CIVICS” PRESENTATION
Exploring Rain Gardens and Water Quality through Science and Civics
NWO Symposium on STEM Teaching
BGSU Olscamp Hall
Saturday, November 19, 2016
2:50 PM – 3:40 PM

AGENDA

Facilitators: Jamie Kochensparger, Lucas Soil and Water Conservation District
Marilyn DuFour, Toledo Division of Environmental Services
(representing the Rain Garden Initiative of Toledo/Lucas County)

- Schedule: 2:50 PM Overview of the Rain Garden Initiative and Science & Civics
Orientation to the Science & Civics Guide
- 3:00 PM AWARENESS:
Color Me A Watershed (pg 30) / Then & Now (pg 41)
- 3:10 PM PARTICIPATORY DEMOCRACY:
The Law Before and After (pg 73)
- 3:20 PM HABITAT EXPLORATION:
Layering the Soil (pg 172)
- 3:30 PM TAKING ACTION:
What Did They Do Over There? (pg 262)
(Student Action Projects through the Rain Garden Initiative and Other Local Partners)
Additional Resources and Evaluation

The Science and Civics Curriculum Guide is now available for $10 in PDF format on-line at store.councilforee.org under Digital Downloads.

Twenty/Twenty Projects and Activities for Wild School Sites is being revised but is available in PDF format on-line at <http://wildlife.ohiodnr.gov/portals/wildlife/pdfs/education/wss%20projects.pdf>.

Project WILD materials are provided free of charge by the ODNR Division of Wildlife.