Cancellation of Spring Housing for Centennial and Falcon Heights Halls

As indicated in Section F, a Student living on-campus beginning with the Fall Semester is obligated to reside on-campus for the entire academic year (fall and spring semester), so long as he or she is duly enrolled at Bowling Green State University subject to the following exceptions for release:

1. Academic withdrawal / dismissal from BGSU.
2. Graduation from BGSU.
3. Other: Medical or Financial Hardship.
4. Substitution of another student. This License Agreement may not be assigned ("sublet"). If Student continues to be registered at University, has obtained Junior status as of August 24, 2015 and obtains prior written approval from the University, Student may be released from this License Agreement by finding another qualified student to occupy the assigned room. Substitution of another student is subject to approval by University, which has sole discretion in this matter. If University approves the proposed new student, University may enter into a License Agreement directly with the new student, and Student may be released from his or her further obligations under this Agreement, except that Student will forfeit his/her initial payment.

D. ELIGIBILITY

The Student agrees to be enrolled at Bowling Green State University or approved affiliated programs and remains enrolled, for academic credit during the duration of this Agreement. Dropping to half-time or part-time enrollment status does not terminate this Agreement.

E. CHOICE OF LAW

This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Ohio, regardless of the place of execution. Any legal action arising pursuant to this Agreement shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Ohio.

F. SERVICE PERIOD

The University offers to furnish a room and meal plan service to the Student for the full academic year. This full academic year Agreement for all BGSU residences includes the fall semester, spring semester (or balances therein) and excludes Thanksgiving Break, Winter Break and Spring Break. Based on availability, the University may offer housing options over break periods for Students on a request basis in designated buildings. Charges for break housing will appear separately as a fee on the Student’s Bursar bill.

G. INITIAL HOUSING PAYMENT

All entering and current Students must remit a $200 Initial Housing Payment prior to reserving or selecting a space in a University residence for Fall semester. After serving the purpose of reserving space, the $200 will be applied to the balance of housing fees after the Office of the Bursar begins Fall fee assessment.

H. HOUSING PRICES

University housing rates are adjusted annually by the Board of Trustees. The rates are for housing only and do not include the cost of a meal plan. The 2015-16 academic year room rates and board rates will be approved by the Board of Trustees by June 2015. Rates are subject to change and may be found on the Office of Residence Life website. Specific room and meal plan charges will be reflected on the Student’s Bursar bill which will be electronically posted by the Office of the Bursar beginning in July. The University Board of Trustees reserves the right to change or modify the room rates outlined herein as economic conditions warrant.

I. EXECUTION OF AGREEMENT

It is agreed that this Agreement is duly executed upon receipt of payment by the Office of the Bursar for room, and meal plan (as applicable) accommodations and constitutes a binding Agreement between the University and Student.

J. PAYMENT OF STUDENT FEES

By agreeing to the terms of the Agreement, the Student agrees to accept room and meal plan and pay the applicable fees in accordance with the scheduled due dates as posted by the Office of the Bursar. Non-occupancy of assigned space does not terminate this Agreement, and the appropriate charges under this Agreement will continue. Students must pay the full amount of all fees on their Bursar account by the posted due date or enroll in an Installment Payment Plan option available through the Office of the Bursar. Fees not paid by the due date may result in one or more of the following actions being taken against the Student by the University:

1. Postponement of scheduled check-in time;
2. Suspension of access to University residence and dining facilities;
3. Termination of Agreement (see Section L).

K. OCCUPANCY

Occupancy occurs when a Student is issued a key for his/her room assignment. Actual physical occupancy of the room by the Student and/or placement of Student’s possessions within the room is not necessary to constitute occupancy. It is the responsibility of all Students to fulfill occupancy expectations by Tuesday of the first week of classes. Once a Student fulfills occupancy, he/she may not cancel his/her Agreement for the purpose of residing off-campus. Failure to establish occupancy may result in termination of this Agreement and subsequent cancellation of enrollment.

L. TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT BY THE UNIVERSITY

The University may terminate this Agreement at any time if the University determines that:

1. The Student is delinquent in his/her tuition, housing, dining or other fees or any part thereof;
2. The Student fails to respect the rights of fellow residents by creating an atmosphere which is not conducive to the successful pursuit of an academic degree or engages in disruptive, dangerous or excessively noisy behavior, or behavior which intimidates or harasses other people or interferes with the quiet enjoyment of the premises by residents and guests;

3. The Student has misrepresented himself/herself to the University;

The University may terminate this Agreement for any of the above reasons upon giving the Student seven (7) days written notice. The notice shall state the reason for termination and the date of termination, which must be at least seven (7) days after serving the notice. After the date of termination, the University shall be entitled, without further notice, to enter the assigned room and repossess the same, and to remove the Student and Student's property.

In the event this Agreement is terminated in accordance with the provisions of this section, the Student shall be required to immediately surrender the assigned room and all University owned property to the University under the same terms and conditions as would apply under this Agreement if the surrender were to take place at the completion of this Agreement.

Notwithstanding the provisions in this section, the University specifically reserves the right to immediately remove any individual from a University residence if the University, in its sole discretion, determines that the individual presents an immediate danger to himself/herself or others.

The University agrees to consider the information and preferences submitted by the Student. However, no guarantee of a specific assignment is implied. At this time, housing assignments are only available for single students with single sex roommates. The Student agrees to observe the hall/room change procedures established by the University and to have prior written approval from an authorized University official before making a change of hall and/or room assignment. If a vacancy occurs in the assigned room, the remaining Student(s) agrees to keep appropriate space for roommate(s) available and clean at all times and to accept other roommate(s) as assigned at any time. The Student agrees that upon acceptance to a special program (such as a Residential Learning Community), he or she will participate in the program requirements or move to another residence upon the request of the University. At the opening of fall and spring semesters and at times of unanticipated over enrollment, the Student may be assigned to temporary or over-assigned housing space. These assignments will be charged at the standard room and meal rates as indicated in this Agreement. The University will take reasonable steps to ensure that such assignments are as brief in duration as possible.

P. REASSIGNMENT

Rooms are subject to reassignment at any time. The Student understands and accepts that the University may alter the Student’s assignment (before or during occupancy) for any or no reason, including, but not limited to, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) compliance, disciplinary reasons, catastrophe, room or room services condition, renovation or closing of a facility, consolidation of vacancies, unavailability of space, violation of specific living area environment, irresolvable incompatibility of roommates, and/or unpaid Housing and Dining Services fees.

Current Students are expected to renew their status with Disability Services on an annual basis prior to the beginning of the housing sign-up process. Upon review of the Student’s documentation, Disability Services will make a recommendation to the Office of Residence Life regarding the Student’s needs.

R. CARE OF FACILITIES

The Student agrees to be directly and financially responsible for keeping the assigned room and its furnishings clean and free from damage, to cooperate with roommates in the common protection of property and in maintenance of the living space, and to advise the University of any deteriorated conditions of the room or its furnishings so timely repairs can be made. The Student agrees to use public areas, residential corridors and rooms, and equipment and furnishings in a careful and proper manner, to contribute to the orderliness and cleanliness of all areas, to cooperate in the common protection of property, and to advise the University of any deteriorated or hazardous conditions so timely repairs can be made. The Student agrees to pay charges when assessed for common area damages or special housekeeping or maintenance services necessary due to misuse or abuse of facilities or equipment for which the Student is determined to be responsible, or to pay an equal portion of charges assessed to all Students of a corridor, or residence hall, or dining facility when those responsible cannot be identified by the hall staff or the responsible individuals fail to assume the charges.

S. MAINTENANCE

University dining rates are adjusted annually by the Board of Trustees. The rates are for dining only and do not include the cost of housing. The 2015-16 academic year room rates and board rates will be approved by the Board of Trustees by June 2015. Rates are subject to change and may be found on the BGSU Dining website. Specific room and meal plan charges will be reflected on the Student’s Bursar bill which will be electronically posted by the Office of the Bursar beginning in July. The University Board of Trustees reserves the right to change or modify the room rates outlined herein as economic conditions warrant.

C. MEAL PLAN CANCELLATION AND ADJUSTMENT POLICY

All students assigned to residence halls are automatically issued the minimum (Bronze Custom) meal plan each semester if no selection is made. The Room forfeiture schedule will be followed.

1. Academic Obligations: Students eligible to adjust their meal plan due to academic obligations away from the campus (e.g. student teaching, internships) are to initiate a request for adjustment through the appropriate college office. The college office will then submit all requests to the University Dining Accounting Office on a Meal Adjustment/Cancellation Form.

2. Dietary/Medical: University Dining staff will work with dietitians and other medical providers to follow prescribed medical diets. Therefore, meal plans are only cancelled when it is determined by the director or designee that University Dining is unable to meet a student’s prescribed diet.

3. Meal Plan Changes: Students changing from one meal plan to another may execute this change at University Dining, dining@bgsu.edu or the Office of Residence Life no later than the end of the first day of classes. Changes on or after the second day of class or changes that are made between semesters must be made in the University Dining Accounting Office. Meal Plan downgrades must be made prior to the first day of classes; however, during the first week of classes, changes to meal plans may still be made, but will incur a $50 change fee. After the first week of classes, only meal plan upgrades will be processed.

4. Meal Plan Cancellations: Full financial credit will only be granted for cancellations prior to the first day of classes and there has been no usage. Thereafter, the maximum adjustable amount will be reduced according to a daily forfeiture schedule. University Dining will use the housing cancellation date or the date of the last meal eaten, whichever is later, as the official date to cancel meal plans. An administrative processing fee of $20.00 will be charged to any meal plan cancellation.
