Bowling Green State University, a four-year public institution, accredited by the Higher Learning Commission and a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, is accepting applications for adjunct instructors to teach at its State Fire School (www.fireschool.org). State Fire School is chartered by the Ohio Department of Public Safety (369).

Classes include: Fire Officer 1, Fire Officer 2, Fire Officer 3, Fire Officer 4 (NFPA 1021)

Required:
Hold a valid certificate to teach a fire service training program issued under rule 4765-21-03 of the Ohio Administrative Code (or equivalent); have three years of experience that includes demonstrated ability in teaching, developing lesson plans and course materials that support learning objectives, managing classroom resources, and assessing students’ progress; demonstrated effective oral and written communication skills, and valid driver’s license.

- Fire Officer 1: Minimum rank: Captain, 5 years in rank
- Fire Officer 2: Minimum rank: Captain, 5 years in rank
- Fire Officer 3: Minimum rank: Battalion Chief (preferably administrative), 5 years in rank
- Fire Officer 4: Chief Officer (department chief), 2 years in rank

Preferred:
Prior experience teaching online, preferably in Instructure/Canvas

Classes are held during the May and October State Fire Schools on the BGSU campus and off-site throughout the year. Some classes are taught with a hybrid online/face-to-face format.

Compensation is commensurate with length of class.

Send/email letter of application, resume, and contact information for three professional references to:

Kerry Gonzalez
kgonzal@bgsu.edu

Subject Line: SFOSOFFICER2014

Prior to offer of employment, all final candidate(s) are required to provide two professional letters of reference dated within the past 12 months, pass a background investigation, and provide proof of eligibility for employment in the United States.

All BGSU required online workplace training must be completed prior to start of employment.

Applications must be received by: December 16, 2013

BGSU is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity institution.