Shelli A. Herman Award

The Division of Student Affairs is seeking applicants for the Shelli A. Herman Award. This is a $600 cash award that would be distributed to a member of the College Student Personnel program at the beginning of their second year.

Shelli A. Herman graduated from Bowling Green State University’s College Student Personnel program in 1990. While a graduate student she was very involved in Greek life and campus leadership initiatives. This endowed gift was motivated by an opportunity to reward and encourage outstanding graduate students at BGSU. Additionally, Ms. Herman wanted to share her appreciation to BGSU for the positive educational experience she received and affirm her confidence in the leadership of the Division of Student Affairs.

Considerations for the Shelli A. Herman Award:

- This scholarship is awarded to a College Student Personnel student entering their second-year in AY 2014-2015.
- Candidates must have an on-campus graduate assistantship in the Division of Student Affairs, an overall GPA of 3.75, and must demonstrate leadership, excellence, and citizenship in their assistantship.
- The award will be selected by a committee determined by the Senior Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students; it will be comprised of members of the Division and one member of the Higher Education and Student Affairs faculty.
- Applications will be available Friday, November 22 online at the Student Affairs website. Completed applications and letters of support must be returned by Monday, July 7 to the Office of the Division of Student Affairs, Bowling Green State University, Attn: Steven Kremer, 107 Conklin North, Bowling Green, Ohio 43403-0160.
- The application contains four parts:
  o The completed application form
  o An essay of no more than 500 words that explains 1) how you have demonstrated leadership, excellence, and citizenship in your assistantship, and 2) how what you have learned in the first year supports your development as a student affairs professional.
  o An updated resume
  o A letter of support from your assistantship supervisor. This letter should address the same three qualities: leadership, excellence and citizenship, as they relate to your assistantship performance.

Timeline:

November 27        Applications available online on Division of Student Affairs website
July 7             Applications due by 5:00pm to Division of Student Affairs, 107 Conklin North
September          Recipient will be announced at the Division of Student Affair’s Back to School Coffee Scholarship Application For The
Shelli A. Herman Award
Division of Student Affairs
Bowling Green State University

Shelli A. Herman graduated from Bowling Green State University’s College Student Personnel program in 1990. While a graduate student she was very involved in Greek life and campus leadership initiatives. This endowed gift was motivated by an opportunity to reward and encourage outstanding graduate students at BGSU. Additionally, Ms. Herman wanted to share her appreciation to BGSU for the positive educational experience she received and affirm her confidence in the leadership of the Division of Student Affairs.

This scholarship is awarded to a second-year member of the College Student Personnel program at Bowling Green State University. Candidates must have an on-campus graduate assistantship in the Division of Student Affairs, an overall GPA of 3.75, and must demonstrate leadership, excellence, and citizenship in their assistantship.

Return application to: The Office of the Division of Student Affairs, Bowling Green State University, Attn: Steven Kremer, 107 Conklin North, Bowling Green, Ohio 43403-0160 by Monday, July 7, 2014 by 5pm. The recipient will be announced at the Division of Student Affairs’ Back to School Coffee in September 2014.

Name: ___________________________________________ ID: #: ____________________________________

Local Address: __________________________________________________________

Phone: __________________________ Email: ________________________________________

Cumulative BGSU GPA: __________________

Will you be a full-time BGSU graduate student during the 2014-2015 academic year (fall & spring)? __Yes__ __No

Location of Assistantship for ’14-’15: _______________________________ Supervisor: _______________________________

List professional development/community involvement activities in which you have been involved since coming to BGSU (can be listed separately):

I attest that the information provided on this application is complete and truthful, to the best of my knowledge. Signature also indicates authorization to release all appropriate information as necessary to complete the scholarship process.

(Your signature)_______________________________________________________________________

Return application by Monday, July 7, 2014 by 5pm.

The following must be included with this application:

1) An essay of no more than 500 words explaining how you have demonstrated leadership, excellence, and citizenship in your assistantship, and how what you have learned this year supports your development as a student affairs professional.

2) Updated copy of resume

3) A letter of support from your assistantship supervisor. This letter should address the same three qualities: leadership, excellence and citizenship, as they relate to your assistantship performance. This can be included when you turn in your application or sent separately to the Office of the Division of Student Affairs (Attn: Steven Kremer) by the application deadline.

11/18/13